The focus of the program is to build upon personal experiences and extend opportunities beyond the classroom environment.

Tracking

Program and behavior data is recorded on daily communication sheets in order to track individual progress.

Weekly checklists and daily point sheets are utilized to track work completion, IEP goal progress and attainment, participation, behavior, coping skills, etc.

Daily communication sheets are emailed home daily for parent records.

IEP progress notes are distributed quarterly. The reports outline the current level of performance according to individual IEP goals and objectives.

Certificate of Attendance

Students participating in the Skills Program are eligible to receive a certificate of attendance at the end of their schooling. While Seacoast Learning Collaborative is a diploma granting school, students need to be accepted and eligible to attend classes in the high school program in order to earn traditional high school credits towards a diploma. Students participating solely in the Skills Program will receive a certificate of attendance. Students are eligible to remain at SLC until the age of 22.

Transition Planning

Change can be a difficult process for any student. At SLC, we make every effort to make this process as smooth as possible to reduce student anxiety and help ensure a successful transition. The transition plans referred to in this section are related to a student's discharge from the program. We hope that all discharges are seen as a positive step for each student. Unfortunately, in some cases, where the safety of the student or others is involved, the discharge may be immediate.

In the cases where the student is moving from SLC to another program or is returning to public school, our expectation is that a transition plan for their departure will be well orchestrated, gradual, agreed to by all parties, and will be in the best interest of the student. In saying that, SLC expects the following:

- Transition planning is an ongoing process with discussions occurring throughout the placement.
- A plan needs to be developed with enough time to be implemented before discharge.
- Meetings will occur as often as needed to ensure that all parts of the plan will be implemented as discussed.

Visits to the new program or school are to take place as often as needed to familiarize the student with their new environment. This may mean partial or full day visits with or without a staff from SLC. We will try to accommodate our schedules and support the student in any way possible.

Attendance

Attendance directly affects learning. It is the responsibility of the parent to contact the school by 8:30am on the day of the absence and indicate the reason for the student's absence. It is also the parent's responsibility to notify the transportation company of their child's absence. If a parent has not contacted the school, counselors/program director will make an effort to contact a parent/guardian to verify a student's absence. In some cases the sending school district will be contacted as well (see call in policy). Excused absences will be granted with a note.

It is the student's responsibility to make up missed assignments. Individual students may be expected to follow their sending districts attendance policy.

Absences may impact a student's eligibility to participate in off campus/extracurricular activities. Excessive absences will be reviewed by the students' team (including the LEA), and will be considered and included in progress notes.

Sick Policy

If your child is ill, we ask that you take the time to assess whether he/she should come to school for the day. Students who are ill have more difficulty focusing and performing their school tasks. Children who are ill also have the potential for passing on infectious illness to other students and staff. Our school policy for illness requests that you keep your child home from school if:

- He or she has a fever over 100 degrees F.
- He or she is vomiting or has vomited in the last 24 hours.
- He or she has diarrhea or has had diarrhea in the past 24 hours.

Your child should be free of the above symptoms for 24 hours without medications before returning to school. If a student does arrive at school ill or becomes ill while at school a staff member will contact the student's parent(s)/guardian(s). If the student is unable to participate in their educational program due to illness, consideration will be given for dismissal of the student for the day.

Please see most recent Covid Protocols for updated information around attendance and quarantine policies.

New Student Off Campus Policy

Any student who is newly admitted to the program will not be allowed to attend any off campus activities for 2 weeks. This allows the student to get to know program expectations and vice versa before participation in off campus activities can begin.

General Guidelines for Parents:

- Signed and dated Registration packet
- Chromebook Authorization on file
- If your student requires medications to be taken during the day, please have your student's doctor complete the medication form provided in the registration packet, and communicate with the school nurse before sending in their medication in a pharmacy labeled container.
- Call the school and the student's bus company if their student is to be absent, late or does not need a bus ride to or from school. Please follow up with a note.
- Inform Seacoast Learning Collaborative of any dietary needs or allergies of their student.
- Provide their student with the appropriate clothing according to the season and any special school dress codes or policies.
- Keep their student out of school if they present a risk of contagion to others for any reason.
- Provide an extra set of clothes to be kept at school for their student.
- Maintain an ongoing communication with program staff about their student.

Alternative Work Space/Recovery Space

Purpose:

The purpose of recovery is to break an individual's cycle of negative based behavior. A student may earn recovery time because of a failure to comply with classroom or programmatic expectations resulting in a generalized state of disruptiveness and non-compliance. Students may place themselves in recovery or staff may ask them to utilize an alternative space as a means of coping with their state of emotional dysregulation, increased agitation or increase in level of distractibility.

SLC Recovery Space Policy:

Once in recovery:

1. Recovery does not begin until the student is in the assigned area.
2. In order to return to the classroom, the student must be putting forth “their best effort” on meeting academic and behavioral expectations.
3. The student must process the incident with the adult and/or peers involved in the interaction resulting in their need for an alternative setting. This teachable time involves identifying precipitants, trigger while examining future coping skills to prevent reoccurrence. See LSI below.

Life Space Interview

Seacoast Learning Collaborative seeks to develop an atmosphere where teaching and learning can occur. Students have a right to learn and teach others, to be listened to, and have their ideas heard without mockery or being put-down. Building this type of community takes commitment from all participants to respect each other, take responsibility for their actions and participate in problem solving.

Goals of the LSI

- Return the young person to normal functioning
- Clarify events
- Repair and restore the relationship
- Teach new coping skills
- Reintegrate the young person back into the routine

Steps of the LSI

- Isolate the conversation
- Explore the young person’s point of view
- Summarize feelings and content
- Connect behaviors to feelings
- Alternative behaviors discussed
- Plan developed/practice new behavior
- Enter young person back into routine

Seacoast Learning Collaborative Policies

Seacoast Learning Collaborative reserves the right to handle any student action not specifically listed in the following section which may be disruptive to the educational process. According to RSA 1.93-D, Safe School Zone, Seacoast Learning Collaborative will report all incidents involving assaultive, threatening, and violent behaviors to the proper authorities.

Student Search Policy

Based on the Federal Regulation pertaining to Safe Schools Act, Seacoast Learning Collaborative reserves the right to search a student's belongings and person should staff suspect that they may be in possession of an illegal substance, weapon, prescription drug, smoking material/paraphernalia and/or any other item deemed inappropriate or unsafe for a school setting. A student search may include asking the student to empty all pockets, and take off their shoes and socks STUDENTS WILL NOT BE PATTED DOWN. In the event of a student's refusal to comply; which is their right, SLC may find it necessary to involve the local police department to complete the search. At that point, the authorities reserve the right to handle the matter according to their regulations. Parents will be informed of the search, via phone, in addition to a written documentation however, this may happen before or after the search is concluded. Should it be necessary to involve police, the staff will notify the parents immediately.

Company/SLC Phone Use

The phones at Seacoast Learning Collaborative are for business use only. Students will not be allowed to place or receive phone calls unless it is an emergency. Students will need permission from their counselor, or the program director, should a need arise. The student will be allowed to use the phone under the direct supervision of staff. Students will not be allowed to use the phone unsupervised. We strongly recommend that students make their phone calls prior to or after school hours.

Valuables that are brought into the classroom, and create a disturbance for others, may be temporarily confiscated.

Cell Phones / Electronic Devices

Should a student come to school in possession of said items, they will need to either leave their phone in their locker or hand the item into their counselor or program director who will lock it in a safe location for the day. The item will be returned at the time of dismissal. Students are not allowed to use their phones/electronic devices while waiting for the bus. Should a student be found in possession of a device, they will be confiscated and consequences will be imposed. Upon the third violation of this policy, the student will be considered a “habitual offender” which may result in the item being confiscated and the parents/guardian may be responsible for picking up the confiscated item.

At no time are students allowed to take pictures or videos on SLC campus and/or during SLC transports.

If the alleged victim or any witness expresses to the Co-Directors or other staff member that believes he/she may be retaliated against, the Executive Director or designee shall develop a process or plan to protect that student from possible retaliation.

Each process or plan may be developed on a case-by-case basis. Suggestions include, but are not limited to, re-arranging student class schedules to minimize their contact, stern warnings to alleged perpetrators, temporary removal of privileges, or other means necessary to protect against possible retaliation.

IV. Protection of all Pupils (RSA 193-F:4, II(c))

This policy shall apply to all pupils and school-aged persons on Seacoast Learning Collaborative grounds and who are participating in Seacoast Learning Collaborative functions, regardless of whether or not such pupil or school aged person is a student within the school.

V. Disciplinary Consequences for Violations of This Policy (RSA 193-F: 4, II (d))

The district reserves the right to impose disciplinary measures against any student who commits an act of bullying, falsely accuses another student of bullying, or who retaliates against any student or witness who provides information about an act of bullying.

In addition to imposing discipline under such circumstances, the School encourages the administration and SLC staff to seek alternatives to traditional discipline, including but not limited to early intervention measures, alternative dispute resolution, conflict resolution and other similar measures.

VI. Distribution and Notice of This Policy (RSA 193-F:4, II(e))

Consequences and appropriate remedial actions for a student who commits one or more acts of bullying or retaliation may range from positive behavioral interventions up to and including suspension or expulsion.

Consequences for a student who commits an act of bullying or retaliation shall be varied and graded according to the nature of the behavior, the developmental age of the student, and the student's history of problem behaviors and performance. Remedial measures shall be designed to correct the problem behavior, prevent another occurrence of the problem, protect and provide support for the victim, and take corrective action for documented systematic problems related to bullying.

XIII. Reporting of Substantiated Incidents to the Co- Directors (RSA 193-F:4, II(l))

XV. School Officials (RSA 193-F:4, II(n))

The Co-Directors of schools are responsible for ensuring that this policy is implemented. In order to facilitate the implementation of this policy, the Executive Director may establish further administrative rules or regulations.

All students have the right to attend school in an environment free of sexual harassment. The school administration disapproves of and will not tolerate sexual harassment under any circumstances.

A definition of sexual harassment may include but is not limited to the following:

- Unwelcome conduct, physical or verbal, that is derogatory to another person and is designed to demean or intimidate.
- Conduct that creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive school environment, thus interfering with a student's performance.

Students who have complaints of sexual harassment by anyone in the school are urged to report such conduct to their counselor and program director. Every effort will be made to investigate all complaints as expeditiously as possible. Furthermore, the information provided in the complaint and the investigation process will be handled as confidentially as possible. There will be no retaliation to students for reporting, in good faith, or for assisting in the investigation of sexual harassment complaints. Depending upon the situation, the local authorities will be involved. At minimum, a copy of the critical incident report will be placed on file.

Incident Reports

In compliance with RSA 193-D, all incident reports documenting a violation of the safe schools act will be forwarded to the Newton Police Department. Additionally, copies of these reports will be mailed to the sending school district and home.

Grievance Policy

A grievance is generally defined as a complaint by a student about a staff member or administrator concerning unfair disciplinary practices or procedures including:

- Bullying,
- Teacher Misconduct,
- Tuition refund when a student leaves the school and
- The use of child restraint practices as outlined in RSA-U

The burden of proof is always placed on the student, and the decision of the Co-Directors.

A grievance procedure is established to encourage open communication. All grievances must be initiated within 24 hours after the alleged unfair practice took place. All grievances must be submitted in writing and the student should use the following procedures:

1. See assigned counselor for an appointment, which must be scheduled within 24 hours of the submitted grievance.
2. If unresolved, an appeal can be made to the Co-Directors.
3. All appeals will be held within four days and a final determination will be rendered.

If the student grievance is regarding an administrator, the student will use the same procedure as indicated above with one of the Co-Directors. Forms are located in the main office.

School Transportation

Riding the bus to school is a student privilege. Safety on the bus is our top priority. Students are expected to adhere to the following guidelines:

- All bus rules set by the driver must be followed. General safety rules include staying seated, keeping seatbelt on, using appropriate language and respecting other students.
- All school rules are in effect on the bus. Bus conduct reports are written up for students who are not compliant with these rules.
- If a student is considered to be a safety risk, the student will not be allowed to get on the bus. The student's parents will be contacted to bring the student home.

- Any changes in a student's regularly scheduled busing must be directed to the Transportation Department at the Seacoast Learning Collaborative or the district's transportation company (i.e. it is a parent's responsibility to let a bus company know if their child will not be riding due to an appointment or other issue).
- Students are not allowed to ride on any bus other than their assigned bus, even if they have parental permission.
- In addition, any student who will be riding home with someone other than his or her designated transportation will require a written note from a parent/guardian.

Please note: A student's school bus ride is considered a part of the student's school day. Therefore, there may be times that a student's bus behavior will have consequences at school.

Please note: If a student receives 3 write ups in a quarter, their bus privileges for off campus activities will be suspended for one week.

School Closure

Information regarding school cancellation or a delayed opening due to inclement weather is made available on the local TV station (WMUR, Channel 9) and NECN.

ABLE

Experiential Education

Program Philosophy

Experiential education is a holistic philosophy, where carefully chosen experiences supported by reflection, critical analysis and synthesis are structured to require the learner to take initiative, make decisions and be accountable for the results, through actively posing questions, investigating, experimenting, being curious, solving problems, assuming responsibility, being creative, constructing meaning and integrating previously developed knowledge. Learners are engaged intellectually, emotionally, socially, politically, spiritually and physically in an uncertain environment where the learner may experience success, failure, adventure and risk taking. The learning usually involves interaction between learners, learner and educator and learner and environment. It challenges the learner to explore issues of value, relationship, diversity, inclusion and community. The educator's primary roles include selecting suitable experiences, posing problems, setting boundaries, supporting learners, ensuring physical and emotional safety, facilitating the learning process, guiding reflection and providing the necessary information.

The Full Value Contract

Every program at SLC participates in ABLE at a level that is appropriate for the developmental abilities of the group. Every group begins their ABLE journey by beginning with the development of a Full Value Contract that is specific to the cluster of students that they will be learning with. The Full Value Contract is necessary for the success of the participants. It helps to foster and craft an atmosphere in which the students feel secure and supported enough to stretch out of their comfort zone and take risks that they normally would not take. The Full Value Contract sets guidelines and rules that everyone agrees to follow and preserve throughout the school year. The process of developing the Full Value Contract encourages caring, understanding and a sense of belonging within the group.

It is expected that in order for the group to move forward within the ABLE program that they not only help earnestly develop the Full Value Contract with their peers, but also adhere to the terms as developed and agreed upon.

Challenge By Choice

As mentioned, the activities that students will face are designed to challenge them emotionally and physically. It is our strong belief that students should not be forced, taunted or coaxed into participating in an activity that they are apprehensive about. Our program is designed to give students a choice and the opportunity to explore and act upon their own feelings. Instructors and students alike will help students to discover that they have the ability to select activities that are appropriate for them. It is this core idea that we hope will help students to make positive choices for themselves later on in life.

This philosophy does not apply to students that are opting out of activities because they do not like the challenge or are not in the mood for the class. When students are feeling this way, it is the responsibility of the instructor to guide students back to the group while reminding them of the crucial role that they play and how their absence may have an effect on the progress of the group. Essentially, we hope that all students will feel valued and relied upon.

Physical Requirements / Medical Conditions

ABLE encourages students to participate in a challenge course experience. The course is designed to challenge students both physically and mentally while adhering to a strong emphasis on safety. Tour level of expected exertion can be described as moderate. From time to time students will be expected to engage in activities that are vigorous in nature such as tennis, fast biking or climbing a ladder.

If a student feels as though these activities may present a roadblock, they are encouraged to discuss this with a staff. If you have a past or present medical condition that may interfere with your participation, please contact your physician and the Experiential Education Coordinator.

Below is an example of specific conditions which should be cleared by a physician before participating in the challenge course.

- Ø Pregnancy
- Ø Kidney or liver transplant
- Ø Healing fracture or joint surgery
- Ø Recent surgery

Students will not be permitted to participate in the challenge course until parents have completed and signed the Youth Medical History form included with your 5 intake paperwork.

Appropriate Dress

ABLE students are expected to dress appropriately for their experiences. Letters to parents are mailed out at the beginning of the school year to inform them of what clothing and materials needed for certain seasons and activities. It is the responsibility of the parents(s) to provide you with the appropriate materials. However, it is the student's responsibility to make sure that the needed items are brought to school. If the student is unprepared because they are either dressed inappropriately or do not have the correct or sufficient materials for the activity, the student will be required to remain in program and complete deskwork. This not to be used as a punishment but is for your safety and in best interest of the group as a whole. If the student should have any questions in regards to "appropriate dress", please inquire with the student's counselor or program director. Students are encouraged to ask their teacher for a copy of the week's schedule to prepare for the ABLE sessions. Students are both permitted and encouraged to leave clothing at school for these activities.

Below you will find a list of essential clothing seasons and a list of prohibited clothing or means of dressing for ABLE.

Necessary Winter Items: If at all possible, all items should be of Gore-Tex material or some other waterproof type material. If students/parents should need help in locating such items, please contact your child's program director for guidance or suggestions.

- Ø A winter hat that can be pulled down to cover the ears. The hat should be windproof.
- Ø Winter gloves. Waterproof, well-insulated mittens will keep the hands warmer since each finger is not separated, but a good pair of gloves will suffice.
- Ø A winter coat with functioning zippers or snaps.

- Ø Snow or ski pants.
- Ø Well insulated winter boots.
- Ø Wool socks, NOT cotton. Cotton holds moisture and wet feet are cold feet.
- Ø A balaclava or other type of winter wind/cold shield.
- Ø Heavy, long-sleeved shirt or sweater to wear under coat.
- Ø If available, students may wish to wear UV sunglasses on bright days. Snow blindness caused by the sun reflecting off of the snow can make it difficult for students to safely participate in some of the activities.

Necessary Summer Items: Summer weather can be just as uncomfortable and risky as winter weather. Students may be required to spend up to 3 hours a day participating in outdoor activities. It is essential that they are as comfortable as possible and prepared for inclement weather even during the hot and sometimes cool, wet summer months.

Insect Repellent: Students may be exposed to biting insects such as ticks and mosquitoes which may carry infectious diseases. One of the best protections from biting insects is to cover the skin as much as possible and use an insect repellent on the remaining exposed skin. If students do not feel comfortable wearing long pants and long sleeves during the hot summer months, they may choose to wear short sleeved shirts and t-shirts and apply insect repellent directly on their skin. The Center for Disease Control recommends the following: All of the EPA-registered active ingredients have demonstrated repellency however; some provide more, longer lasting protection than others. Additional research reviewed by CDC suggests that repellents containing DEET (N, N-diethyl-m-toluamide) or picaridin (KBR 3023) typically provide longer-lasting protection than the other products and oil of lemon eucalyptus (p-menthane-3, 8-diol) provides longer lasting protection than other plant-based repellents. Permethrin is another long-lasting repellent that is intended for application to clothing and gear, but not directly to skin. In general, the more active ingredient (higher concentration) a repellent contains, the longer time it protects against mosquito bites. People who are concerned about using repellents may wish to consult their health care provider for advice. The National Pesticide Information Center (NPIC) can also provide information through a toll-free number, 1-800-858-7378.

Extreme Weather Protocol

Students face many risks when participating in ABLE. Participating in activities outdoors presents many natural risks that students must be prepared to face. Weather and rapidly changing conditions can pose a serious threat to the well-being of participants.

Cold weather Guidelines:

The cold air alone can be deadly but when the air is moving it feels much colder. The wind chill is the effect of the wind on people and animals. The wind chill temperature is based on the rate of heat loss from exposed skin caused by wind and cold and is to give you an approximation of how cold the air feels on your body.

As the wind increases, it removes heat from the body, driving down skin temperature and eventually internal body temperature. If the temperature is 0 degrees F and the wind is blowing at 15 mph, the wind chill temperature is 19 degrees F.

Students will remain indoors when the temperature outdoors is colder than 0 degrees F.

Students always need to arrive at school prepared to participate in outdoor activities. Since weather fluctuates rapidly, students that may not go outdoors in the morning may be expected to do so later in the day.

The attached chart can assist you in determining the outdoor temperature including wind chill as a factor.

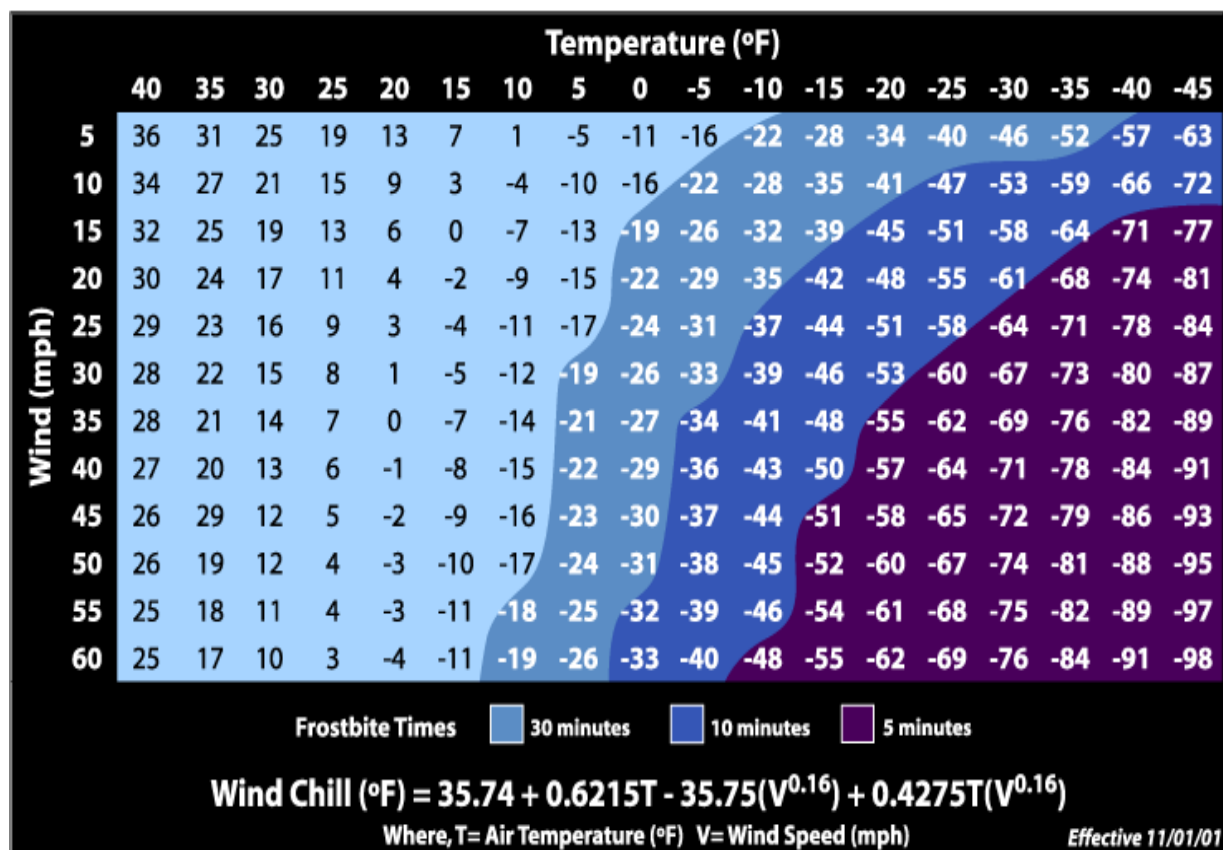

Wind Chill	Cold Threat
40°F to 21°F	COLD. Unpleasant.
20°F to 1°F	VERY COLD. Very unpleasant.
0°F to -19°F	BITTER COLD. Frostbite possible. Exposed skin can freeze within 5 minutes.
-20°F to -69°F	EXTREMELY COLD. Frostbite likely. Exposed skin can freeze within 1 minute. Outdoor activity becomes dangerous.

≤ -70°F (≤ -57°C)

FRIGIDLY COLD. Exposed skin can freeze in 30 seconds.

Wind Chill Chart

Prohibited Items

Students participating in ABLE are expected to “be with the group” at all times. ABLE provides students with an experiential approach to learning many things such as teamwork, leadership training, patience and a deep understanding as to what it means to be responsible for somebody other than themselves within a wide range of different environments. In order to be able to be successful within this approach, students need to be focused on the group t, the fewer the distractions and the better prepared the group will be emotionally, physically and technically, and the more apt the students are to achieve success. Some prohibited items may seem obvious, other not so obvious prohibitions are in place to help support the comfort level of students working closely within a group.

Prohibited Items:

- Ø Barefoot or inappropriate footwear (sandals, un-tied footwear or footwear without shoelaces or Velcro).
- Ø Soiled or tattered clothing.
- Ø Shirts baring midriff, halter tops, tank tops etc.
- Ø Shirts with inappropriate slogans or advertising.
- Ø Weapons, drugs, alcohol, tobacco products or other items strictly prohibited as outlined in this student handbook.
- Ø Pens or pencils in pockets.
- Ø Cell phones or music players.

Supervision and Monitoring: School and network administrators and their authorized employees monitor the use of information technology resources to help ensure that uses are secure and in conformity with this policy. Administrators reserve the right to examine, use, and disclose any data found on the school's information networks in order to further the health, safety, discipline, or security of any student or person, or to protect property. They may also use this information in disciplinary actions, and furnish evidence of crime to law enforcement.
